NEW BUSINESS:

Richard J. announced that the ANA is looking for a backup location for the 2021 World's Fair of Money. It is scheduled for August 2021 in Rosemont, Illinois near Chicago, but there is a concern that meeting restrictions will obstruct holding the event there.

EXHIBITS:

Wayne W. After going through one box of circulated cents from the bank Wayne found 450 copper cents and 40 of those were wheat cents. He considered it a productive use of his time and all agreed.

Richard J. showed an off-center 2000 D 5¢ piece he found in circulation.

Caren M. shared two 2004 Canadian hologram coins from her collection.

John G. showed us the 1982-D small date cent he acquired recently

Dan U. doesn't have an Eid Mar (Ides of March) silver denarius or gold aureus but shared photos of them and talked about the history and value of the coins minted circa 42 B.C. by Brutus, one of the assassins of Julius Caesar, to commemorate the deed done on the Ides of March. He also used the coins to pay his army.

Larry F. brought another flea market find, a set of 2007 – 2011 Maui Trade Dollars. Each one displays sea life native to Maui.

REMINISCING

First on our list is the scheduled new virtual meeting place at HILLTOP BAPTIST CHURCH 6915 Palmer Park Blvd, Colorado Springs 80915 - corner of Palmer Park Blvd & Peterson Rd. Masks are required to come in & out of the building. Hopefully, we can pick up where we left off last March. Exhibit Talks and Door Prizes will resume. During the meeting, masks & social distancing is optional. Tables to be wiped down before & after meeting, the room put back in order & trash picked up & disposed. Thanks to Barbara and Frank T. for helping to set this up for the Society.

As Dan had stated in this newsletter, the big event would be the ANA selecting Colorado Springs as host city for the 2022 National Money Show. This would mean that the local clubs that are interested in being the host or cohost club participate with nomination of a Host Chairman and an agenda for the event.
